(The reporting site must still be within the thirty (30) mile zone.) Producer shall give prior notice to the Union of the point so designated. With respect to any television series, such point may be changed by Producer at the beginning of each season. Performers who travel by coach class shall be reimbursed by Producer for baggage fees and costs of in-flight meals, provided that the performer submits to the Producer a request for reimbursement with appropriate receipts within thirty (30) days after the flight.

The foregoing shall not apply when the travel is pursuant to subsections (4), (5) or (6) of the preceding paragraph of this Section 35.D.

"(2) Transportation for Travel Other Than by Air

"First class transportation shall be provided for travel other than by air. For this purpose, "first class transportation" is synonymous with "reasonable transportation." This Agreement uses the expressions "reasonable transportation" and "first-class transportation." The terms are intended to be synonymous.—The type of transportation required by this paragraph can best be illustrated by examples: Bus transportation for a relatively short distance (Hollywood to Lake Arrowhead) meets these requirements; bus transportation for a long distance (Hollywood to San Francisco) does not. Pullman accommodations to San Francisco, or any other long distance, meet these requirements; deluxe transportation (e.g., Super Chief) is not required. Transportation on a commercial airline without sleeper accommodations is first-class transportation. First-class transportation shall be provided on commercial airlines when the performer is required to fly at the request of the Producer.—The foregoing shall apply to jet flights as well as to prop-driven aircraft.—The foregoing shall not apply when first-class transportation is not available or six (6) or more of the company are being transported. Charter flights may be used which provide substantially equivalent accommodations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, first-class air transportation need not be provided with respect to auditions and interviews."

The foregoing shall apply to jet flights as well as to prop-driven aircraft. Charter flights may be used which provide substantially equivalent accommodations.

"When the Producer requires the background actor to travel by coach class, Producer shall provide elevated coach class travel (e.g., Economy Plus, Extended Leg Room, etc.) when available. Background actors who travel by coach class shall be reimbursed by Producer for baggage fees and costs of in-flight meals, provided that the background actor submits to the Producer a request for reimbursement with appropriate receipts within thirty (30) days after the flight.

"If a background actor covered under this Agreement would be required to travel in coach class, but another employee employed on the same production by the same Producer is traveling on the same flight and the other employee is entitled to travel in a higher class of transportation pursuant to the minimum terms of the collective bargaining agreement under which he/she is employed, then the background actor covered under this Agreement shall be upgraded to the same class of transportation as is afforded to the other employee.

"If business class transportation is not available and coach class travel is not permissible as described above, then the Producer shall provide first class transportation to the background actor.

"If first class transportation and accommodations are not available for reasons beyond the Producer's control, the Producer shall furnish the next best available class and promptly notify the Union and the background actor what arrangements have been made."

- g. Modify the first paragraph of Schedule X, Part II, Section 39 as follows:

"39. TRAVELING EXPENSES, AIR TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATIONS

"The background actor's necessary traveling expenses, meals and lodging shall be made available at the Producer's expense. The foregoing shall apply to jet flights as well as to prop-driven aircraft. Charter flights may be used which provide substantially equivalent accommodations.

"When the Producer requires the background actor to travel by coach class, Producer shall provide elevated coach class travel (e.g., Economy Plus, Extended Leg Room, etc.) when available. Background actors who travel by coach class shall be reimbursed by Producer for baggage fees and costs of in-flight meals, provided that the background actor submits to the Producer a request for reimbursement with appropriate receipts within thirty (30) days after the flight.

"If a background actor covered under this Agreement would be required to travel in coach class, but another employee employed on the same production by the same Producer is traveling on the same flight and the other employee is entitled to travel in a higher class of transportation pursuant to the minimum terms of the collective bargaining agreement under which he/she is employed, then the background actor covered under this Agreement shall be upgraded to the same class of transportation as is afforded to the other employee.

"If business class transportation is not available and coach class travel is not permissible as described above, then the Producer shall provide first class transportation to the background actor.

"If first class transportation and accommodations are not available for reasons beyond the Producer's control, the Producer shall furnish the next best available class and promptly notify the Union and the background actor what arrangements have been made."

h. Modify Section 56(a) of the SAG Television Agreement as follows:

"(a) ~~First-class~~Business class transportation shall be provided on commercial airlines when the performer is required to fly at the request of the Producer, except that coach class air travel shall be permissible in the following circumstances: (i) for domestic flights that are less than 1,000 airline miles when the flight is non-stop from the departure point to the final destination; (ii) for non-stop flights between Los Angeles and Vancouver; (iii) for non-stop flights that are less than 1,000 airline miles between the United States and Vancouver or between the United States and Toronto; (iv) if six or more performers travel together in the same class on the same flight; or (v) for auditions and interviews. The foregoing shall apply to jet flights as well as to prop-driven aircraft. The foregoing shall not apply when first-class transportation is not available or if six (6) or more performers travel together on the same flight and in the coach class on jet flights. Coach class does not include "economy class;" however, short flights commonly known as "commuter" flights are acceptable. Charter flights may be used which provide substantially equivalent accommodations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, first-class air transportation need not be provided with respect to auditions and interviews.

"When the Producer requires the performer to travel by coach class, Producer shall provide elevated coach class travel (e.g., Economy Plus, Extended Leg Room, etc.) when available. Performers who travel by coach class shall be reimbursed by Producer for baggage fees and costs of in-flight meals, provided that the performer submits to the

The foregoing shall not apply when the travel is pursuant to subsections (iv), (v) or (vi) of the first paragraph of this Section 35.D.
